We the People of Colorado, in order to promote economic development, reduce fuel costs, and diversify our energy resources, establish the following vision to spur innovation and growth.

Our Vision is to make Colorado a global leader in solar thermal adoption, installation, manufacturing, and R&D to boost Colorado’s economy, generate jobs, and help build a sustainable energy future.

We commit on this 24th day of January 2012 to help bring this vision to life.